TAKES STEPS TO IMPEACH SULZER

New York Legislature Adopts Committee Report.

GOVERNOR REFUSES TO TALK

Majority Leader Levi Offers Resolution in Assembly to Impeach State Executive for "Willful Corrupt Conduct in Office and Miscellaneous Misdeeds."

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The report of the Frawley legislative committee charging Governor Sulzer with having diverted campaign contributions to his own private use was adopted by the legislature and a resolution to impeach him for "willful and corrupt conduct in office and for high crimes and misdemeanors" was offered in the assembly by Majority Leader Levi.

Never in the history of the state has her chief executive been impeached.

The fight in the senate over the adoption of the report was brief, the session lasting but forty-five minutes.

Governor Sulzer heard the news over the telephone. He made no comment.

Before the sun sets today he will be impeached, the majority leaders assert.

The conclusions of the Frawley committee, embodied in its report to the legislature, are that Governor Sulzer falsified under oath his campaign contribution account, diverted some of these contributions to the purchase of stock, speculated in stock at the time that, as governor, he was earnestly pressing legislation against the New York Stock Exchange.

"We submit to the senate and assembly," the report recites, "that the facts stated are sufficiently serious in character and are so violative of the laws of the state and the rules of fitness for and conduct in high office that the public interests demand some action."

May Punish for Contempt.

It is recommended that the legislature take steps to punish for contempt in refusing to testify Louis A. Sarecky, Mr. Sulzer's confidential secretary, and Frederick L. Colwell, referred to as "the friend and dummy of William Sulzer in certain Wall street dealings."

"During the time of these hearings and investigations," the report proceeds, "William Sulzer, as governor, has done everything in his power to withhold the truth and obstruct the production of evidence and the course of justice."

The report is signed by James J. Frawley, chairman; Eugene Lamb Richards, counsel, and Matthew T. Horgan, secretary of the investigating committee.

The report contains affidavit of Governor Sulzer that he received and spent only $5,460, directly or indirectly, as candidate for governor, followed by the statement that the testimony shows a much larger sum to have been paid him for this purpose.

This unaccounted for surplus included checks for $2,500 from Jacob H. Schiff and $500 from Abram I. Eklus, in addition to various amounts, including $500 from William F. McCombs, chairman, and $1,000 from Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the finance committee of the Democratic national committee, which, it is asserted, "no one can doubt" were contributed specifically for campaign purposes.

HOUSE COMMITTEE QUIZZES MULHALL

Witness Begins Story of Congressional Activity.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Martin M. Mulhall began the second recital of his experiences in influencing legislation before the investigators on the house side of the Capitol.

The committee plans to take up systematically the various members of congress, employees of congress and other public men mentioned in the correspondence and examine the witnesses relating to each individual.

Following this plan all of the Mulhall letters relating to Representative Richard Bartholdt of Missouri were placed in the record and Mulhall was questioned about them.

The letters related to the activity of Mulhall in procuring assistance from Bartholdt in preventing a report on an eight-hour labor bill from the labor committee and in supporting the Littlefield anti-pilotage bill which the National Association of Manufacturers favored.

The letters and Mulhall's testimony told of arranging to obtain the support of Bartholdt and other members for the anti-pilotage bill by working to hold up in the house a judiciary bill forbidding the interstate shipment of intoxicating liquors to which Mr. Bartholdt was opposed.

WILL TRY OUT NEW RATES

Great Western Agrees on Test for Four Months.

St. Paul, Aug. 12.—Judge C. A. Wilard of the United States district court signed an order directing the Great Western railroad to put the Minnesota legal rates for passengers and freight into effect four months, beginning Oct. 1, as a test period to determine whether or not the rates are confiscatory.

The order was the result of a stipulation agreed to by attorneys for the state and for the railroad and the plan is one proposed at a former hearing by T. D. O'Brien, of counsel for the state. This order disposes for the present of the state's suit to compel the road to put in the legal rates. The road already has agreed to comply with the 2-cent fare law, but has only reduced freight rates to meet competition.

BISHOP SABINE DEAD.

New York, Aug. 12.—Bishop William Tufnell Sabine, D. D., of the Reformed Episcopal church died at his home here. He was seventy-four years old. The bishop suffered a stroke of apoplexy several weeks ago. Bishop Sabine was one of the first rectors to leave the Protestant Episcopal and join the Reformed Episcopal church.

Uses Dynamite to End Life.

Altoona, Pa., Aug. 12.—Placing two sticks of dynamite in his vest pocket, Henry Boldt went to the rear of his home, lighted a fuse and calmly awaited the explosion that blew off one arm and cut his body almost in two. Despondency over illness is believed to have been the cause. Boldt was fifty-seven years old and a former railroad employee.

DECIDE AGAINST OPEN SESSION

House Democrats Caucus on Currency Measure.

VIGOROUSLY DEFENDS BILL

Representative Glass Explains Purposes and Hopes of Its Framers and Warmly Replies to Critics—Friends of the Bill Predict Caucus Will Make Very Few Changes.

Washington, Aug. 12.—A vigorous defense of the administration currency bill by Representative Carter Glass, one of its authors, was received with general applause and support in the first session of the caucus of Democratic members of the house before which the measure is to be worked over and its fate determined.

Representative Glass' speech followed an unsuccessful attempt by the "insurgent" Democrats of the banking and currency committee to have the caucus thrown open to the public.

Led by Representatives Neeley of Kansas and Ragsdale of South Carolina, members of the committee, Representative Henry of Texas and others, the advocates of open caucus mustered 63 votes against 119.

Mr. Glass' speech in explanation of the bill, which began as a general statement of the purposes and hopes of its framers, was turned into an emphatic defense of the measure when the "insurgents" insisted that it should make provisions for the issuance of currency upon warehouse receipts for corn, wheat and cotton.

Speculation would receive the active support of the government, he declared, if these amendments were put into the bill.

The legitimate demands of farming communities, he said, for money to carry on ordinary farming and commercial operations were fully covered by the measure.

Friends of the administration bill, as the result of the opening session, predicted that the caucus would approve the measure with few changes.

FIND NAME TOO CUMBERSOME

So National "Antis" Become Woman Conservationists.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Convinced that the title of their organization, the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, was too cumbersome, members announced that they would hereafter be known as Woman Conservationists.

They propose to work to offset the possible effect on congress of the meeting this week of the National Council of Women Voters, and they are looking forward to a stubborn battle.

"We think that putting woman into politics," said the officials of the conservationists in a statement, "and forcing her to do man's work as well as her own is a terrible waste. We therefore stand as a body of conservationists. Our aim is to conserve the home, to conserve motherhood, to conserve womanhood."

LEADERS GETTING WORRIED

Senate Fails to Make Progress on Tariff Bill.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Democratic leaders in the senate are considerably perturbed over the failure to make progress on the tariff bill and for several days informal conferences have been held with Progressive Republicans and regular Republican leaders in the hope that some means to hasten consideration of the measure might be found.

It was said, however, that nothing definite had been accomplished.

To sound Republican sentiment in the matter Democratic leaders have inquired what progress could be made on the tariff should it be definitely agreed that the senate would not take up the currency bill at the present session.

No assurance, it was reported, were given as to a definite time for voting on the tariff, but it was asserted by minority leaders that such an assurance undoubtedly would lead to earlier action on the tariff.

JAPS' PROTEST IS DELAYED

Fails to Arrive on Day Allen Land Act Becomes Law.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Though it had been expected that the Japanese reply to the state department's last note regarding the protest against the California alien land legislation would be submitted before that legislation became effective there has been no further move in the matter.

Ambassador Chinda has served notice upon Secretary Bryan, however, that the Japanese answer will be forthcoming in due course.

Meanwhile there is some expectation that a test case will be instituted before the California courts.

Cloudburst in Colorado.

Colorado City, Colo., Aug. 12.—Damage estimated at $100,000 was caused by a cloudburst, of which this city bore the brunt. Crops were badly damaged, county roads were so badly washed that they will require thousands of dollars to repair, and at least fifty families were rendered homeless by the flood.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND.

St. Paul Prelate Outlines Views on Religious Decay.

DISCUSSES RELIGIOUS DECAY

Archbishop Ireland Lays Blame to State Schools.

Milwaukee, Aug. 12.—Archbishop Ireland, addressing the convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, declared that "the evil to-day in America is the decay of religion and, in necessary sequence, the decay of morals."

In both instances the cause of the decay is the enforced secularism of the state schools. Others than Catholics, heedful observers and intelligent thinkers, admit the evil, admit the cause and give the alarm. I trust the awakening common sense and patriotism of the American people to discover the remedy.

BISHOP BUSCH FLAYS MINING MAGNATES

Says They Secured Properties by Rank Frauds.

Milwaukee, Aug. 12.—The social service conference in conjunction with the American Federation of Catholic Societies held its first meeting here. Five hundred delegates and others listened to addresses. Bishop P. J. Muldoon of Rockford, Ill., presided.

"Labor in the Mines," was the topic of an address by Bishop Joseph P. Busch of Lead, S. D.

He gave a brief sketch of the conditions of miners in the Dakotas and charged the mine owners with obtaining the rank frauds ever perpetrated in the United States, and said that even bloodshed and murder marked the trail of "land grabbing."

He also charged the owners with controlling all the local, state and federal officers of that section of the country.

Bishop Busch gave a résumé of his attempts to obtain a Sunday rest day among the miners, but said that the owners made "it so hot for him that he had to move his headquarters to Rapid City."

Here, he said, he now lived on a small farm, where he hoped to "raise enough butter and eggs" to live on, even though he was oppressed by the moneyed men of the mines.

DEMOCRATS OBEY PARTY MANDATE

Vote to Approve Tariff, Though It Means Defeat at Home.

CAUCUS IS ALL POWERFUL

Senator Bryan Opposes Further Extensions of Parcel Post—Says It Is Too Costly to Government—Bristow Sees Opening of Another Fight For Higher Postal Rates.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 12.—[Special.]—The caucus is mighty and will no doubt prevail on the currency bill as it did on the tariff bill. "Enough Democrats to change the political complexion of the house," said a member of that party, "rose in the caucus and said the tariff bill would surely defeat them for re-election." Those Democrats could have defeated the tariff bill, but they bowed to the mandate of the party caucus.

At least a dozen Democrats declared in the senate caucus that certain reductions and free listing certain products meant disaster to them and the party in their states, but only two stood out and said they would vote against the bill. Senators who denounced features of the bill in the caucus supported the bill in the senate.

There is nothing quite so powerful as a well regulated caucus.

Second Class Rates Again.

A forerunner of what may be expected in the coming regular session of congress was developed in a speech by Senator Bryan of Florida, who was opposing further extensions of the parcel post. He said that it cost the government 730 cents a pound more to carry second class mail than it received for the service, which is 1 cent a pound. He also said that was the reason why the country could not have one cent postage.

Commenting upon Bryan's speech Senator Bristow, who is a newspaper owner and who has always opposed an increase of second class rates, says that it is the beginning of another fight for increased rates. He says the way the parcel post is being managed will largely increase the postal deficit and congress will look around for something to make it up, and the fight for an increase of second class rates will be the result; that under the system adopted no one can tell what the expense of the parcel post will be or whether it pays for itself.

Marshall's Reform.

After the senate had wrangled for two hours one day about newspaper extracts and editorial comments Vice President Marshall remarked to a friend: "We must have a reform in the senate. I am going to suggest that only half an hour each morning be set aside for exercises relating to the output of the clipping bureaus."

Informers and the Truth.

Senator Reed of Missouri, who has been conducting the examination of Mulhall, says: "I have a great deal of experience with informers first and last, and while many of them give valuable evidence, it is a characteristic of informers that they cannot tell a straight story nor tell the whole truth. They may tell a great deal of truth, but at times they will wander. They cannot bring themselves to confess some of their own infamies connected with their story and thus break down and get tangled with the truth."

Shedding Tears.

It was in the discussion of the Cammelt case that Minority Leader Mann, in closing the debate on the Republican side, said: "I shed my tears for those who have been led astray; I shed my tears in behalf of the innocent while you protect the guilty."

Congressman Clayton, on the Democratic side, called attention to lapses by the Republican administration in similar cases in which leniency had been shown to indicted people.

The gentleman from Illinois, according to his own statement, shed half a bushel of tears over that California case. We have the very ludicrous position of the gentlemen getting down before this house and shedding tears and keeping on shedding tears. You are ashamed of your miserable performance and you come here now and shed penitential tears."

It is not very often that they get the best of Mann in the debates.

Gallinger and Gronna.

Senator Gronna of North Dakota is one who often proclaims that he is a farmer. He voted for free granite, much to the displeasure of Senator Gallinger, who wanted protection for New Hampshire granite. They had some little talk back and forth, and Gronna remarked: "I voted for free granite in order to give the farmers cheaper tombstones."

"If I could select the victims I might agree with the senator from North Dakota," drily remarked Gallinger.

Morality Inquiries.

When considering nominations for offices it has been noticed that senators from woman suffrage states make inquiries about the moral character of the men named and sometimes oppose those who do not come up to a fixed standard. It is also stated that men with a moral blight cannot be elected to office in suffrage states.

MINOT RIOTS APPEAR OVER

Prisoners in County Jail Demand Jury Trial.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 12.—Only five more men were arrested in I. W. W. disturbances here. Jack Allen, one of the I. W. W. leaders, was arrested at the Soo railroad depot.

The police and deputies have the situation in control and no serious rioting has occurred.

The city is quiet although crowds of men are roaming the streets. The downtown district appears as if a carnival were in progress. Industrial workers are reported coming, but the authorities are skeptical of the reports.

The prisoners in the county jail were before Judge Murray of the county court and were granted a continuance until Monday. Each demanded a jury trial.

SIR THOMAS WILL EXHIBIT

Urges Britons to Take Part in Panama Pacific Exposition.

London, Aug. 12.—Declaring that he will be an individual exhibitor at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, whether or not the British government participates, Sir Thomas Lipton, in the Times, urges the government to reconsider its decision. He says:

"Putting aside for the moment all international and sentimental considerations involved it appears to me absolutely essential that, for strictly business purposes, this country should be officially and adequately represented."

"I shall be among the exhibitors, with or without government support."

Army of 25,000 Would Capture Province of Hankow.

Hankow, China, Aug. 12.—An army of 25,000 rebels from the province of Hunan started from Yochow with the intention of capturing Hankow and proceeding thence to Peking.

A further shipment of northern troops, completing a force of probably 6,000 men, was sent from Hankow on the way to Sinti, in the province of Hupeh, where the Hunanese rebels are preparing to make a stand.

PULP FROM SWEDEN FREE

Principle Applied to Canada Extended to Other Nation.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Sweden was conceded the right to send wood pulp and paper into the United States free of duty.

The state and treasury departments have decided the recent decision of the customs court, that nations who have the most favorable treaties with the United States were entitled to free wood pulp and paper because that privilege was granted to Canada, is applicable in principle to Sweden.

American Communication Translated into Spanish.

MEXICAN OFFICIALS SILENT

Receipt of the Message Will Not Inveigle the Reception of John Lind. Authorities Remain Firm in Intending to Resist Any Plan of Interference on the Part of the United States.

Mexico City, Aug. 12.—The message of the state department at Washington, which Special Envoy John Lind has for President Huerta is ready for presentation. The document was translated into Spanish.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge, took steps to ascertain whether the Mexican government would receive the communication. That it will do so there is little doubt.

Receipt of the message would not involve the reception of Mr. Lind or Dr. William Bayard Hale, who also is in Mexico on behalf of the state department.

Mexican officials are uncommunicative regarding Mr. Lind, but unofficially their attitude of noncompliance with any plan of interference on the part of the United States has not been altered.

Mr. Lind and Dr. Hale were in close conference for several hours. The most of Mr. Lind's time, however, was spent at his hotel, chiefly that he might be near Mrs. Lind, who is unable to leave her room because of illness. Her indisposition is not serious. Mr. Lind had numerous callers. None of the visitors were Mexicans.

COMMENT NETTLES BRITAIN

Government Explains Why Huerta Was Recognized.

London, Aug. 12.—The British government, nettled by the comment of certain American newspapers concerning Great Britain's recognition of President Huerta, declared that the comment is based on a misconception of facts.

"The recognition of President Huerta was the recognition of a provisional president pending an election," the statement says.

"It was done on the advice of the British minister to Mexico as being likely to assist in the restoration of order—an important consideration in view of the large British interests involved."

NATIONAL STRIKE CALLED

Manifesto in Milan, Italy, Means General Walkout.

Milan, Italy, Aug. 12.—The eighth day of the general strike in Milan was spent by the leaders chiefly in organizing a national general strike, which was proclaimed in a manifesto. They found their task more difficult than they expected.

There is a great display of troops in Milan. Many arrests are being made, especially of anarchists, who are charged with incitement to civil war.

Another meeting, attended by 30,000 strikers, was held. It was voted to continue the strike and the hope was expressed that support would be given the movement by a national strike.

FERDINAND ADDRESSES ARMY

"Exhausted, but Not Conquered," Bulgar King Says.

Sofia, Aug. 12.—King Ferdinand issued an address to the army, thanking his soldiers for the bravery and devotion they displayed in the war against the "treacherous allies," and declaring their efforts would have been crowned with success had not a series of political circumstances paralyzed the country.

"Pressed on all sides," said the king, "we were obliged to sign the treaty of Bucharest, our country not being in a condition to struggle against five neighbors. Exhausted, but not conquered, we had to fur our glorious standards until better days."

NOVEL METHOD OF SELLING STATE BONDS.

The above photograph shows a throng of eager customers in waiting at the office of Walter J. Smith, state treasurer of Minnesota, when the first public state bond sale ever held in Minnesota or any other state was opened. (Mr. Smith is shown in the insert.) Because of the tightness of the money market not a bid was received when $100,000 worth of these 3 per cent bonds were offered for sale on June 16. Accordingly it was decided to give the general public a chance to buy them over the counter in denominations of $100 and the sale proved a great success. The entire lot was taken inside of three hours, $32,600 worth being disposed of in the first hour, the purchasers being people of all stations in life. It is likely the same plan will be adopted in disposing of $600,000 additional bonds of the same nature and $500,000 worth of 4 1/2 per cent historical building securities.

JAPS' PROTEST IS DELAYED

Falls to Arrive on Day Allen Land Act Becomes Law.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Though it had been expected that the Japanese reply to the state department's last note regarding the protest against the California alien land legislation would be submitted before that legislation became effective there has been no further move in the matter.

Ambassador Chinda has served notice upon Secretary Bryan, however, that the Japanese answer will be forthcoming in due course.

Meanwhile there is some expectation that a test case will be instituted before the California courts.

Cloudburst in Colorado.

Colorado City, Colo., Aug. 12.—Damage estimated at $100,000 was caused by a cloudburst, of which this city bore the brunt. Crops were badly damaged, county roads were so badly washed that they will require thousands of dollars to repair, and at least fifty families were rendered homeless by the flood.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND.

St. Paul Prelate Outlines Views on Religious Decay.

DISCUSSES RELIGIOUS DECAY

Archbishop Ireland Lays Blame to State Schools.

Milwaukee, Aug. 12.—Archbishop Ireland, addressing the convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, declared that "the evil today in America is the decay of religion and, in necessary sequence, the decay of morals. In both instances the cause of the decay is the enforced secularism of the state schools. Others than Catholics, heedful observers and intelligent thinkers, admit the evil, admit the cause and give the alarm. I trust the awakening common sense and patriotism of the American people to discover the remedy."

BISHOP BUSCH FLAYS

MINING MAGNATES

Says They Secured Properties by Rank Frauds.

Milwaukee, Aug. 12.—The social service conference in conjunction with the American Federation of Catholic Societies held its first meeting here. Five hundred delegates and others listened to addresses. Bishop P. J. Muldoon of Rockford, Ill., presided.

"Labor in the Mines," was the topic of an address by Bishop Joseph F. Busch of Lead, S. D.

He gave a brief sketch of the conditions of miners in the Dakotas and charged the mine owners with obtaining the mine properties "through the rank frauds ever perpetrated in the United States," and said that even bloodshed and murder marked the trail of "land grabbing."

He also charged the owners with controlling all the local, state and federal officers of that section of the country.

Bishop Busch gave a resume of his attempts to obtain a Sunday rest day among the miners, but said that the owners made "it so hot for him that he had to move his headquarters to Rapid City."

Here, he said, he now lived on a small farm, where he hoped to "raise enough butter and eggs" to live on, even though he was oppressed by the mined men of the mines.

DEMOCRATS OBEY PARTY MANDATE

Vote to Approve Tariff, Though It Means Defeat at Home.

CAUCUS IS ALL POWERFUL

Senator Bryan Opposes Further Extensions of Parcel Post—Says It Is Too Costly to Government—Bristow Sees Opening of Another Fight For Higher Postal Rates.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 12.—[Special.]—The caucus is mighty and will no doubt prevail on the currency bill as it did on the tariff bill. "Enough Democrats to change the political complexion of the house," said a member of that party, "rose in the caucus and said the tariff bill would surely defeat them for re-election." Those Democrats could have defeated the tariff bill, but they bowed to the mandate of the party caucus.

At least a dozen Democrats declared in the senate caucus that certain reductions and free listing certain products meant disaster to them and the party in their states, but only two stood out and said they would vote against the bill. Senators who denounced features of the bill in the senate supported the bill in the senate.

There is nothing quite so powerful as a well regulated caucus.

Second Class Rates Again.

A forerunner of what may be expected in the coming regular session of congress was developed in a speech by Senator Bryan of Florida, who was opposing further extensions of the parcel post. He said that it cost the government 7.30 cents a pound more to carry second class mail than it received for the service, which is 1 cent a pound. He also said that was the reason why the country could not have one cent postage.

Commenting upon Bryan's speech Senator Bristow, who is a newspaper owner and who has always opposed an increase of second class rates, says that it is the beginning of another fight for increased rates. He says the way the parcel post is being managed will largely increase the postal deficit and congress will look around for something to make it up, and the fight for an increase of second class rates will be the result; that under the system adopted no one can tell what the expense of the parcel post will be or whether it pays for itself.

Marshall's Reform.

After the senate had wrangled for two hours one day about newspaper extracts and editorial comments Vice President Marshall remarked to a friend: "We must have a reform in the senate. I am going to suggest that only half an hour each morning be set aside for exercises relating to the output of the clipping bureau."

Informers and the Truth.

Senator Reed of Missouri, who has been conducting the examination of Mulhall, says: "I have a great deal of experience with informers first and last, and while many of them give valuable evidence, it is a characteristic of informers that they cannot tell a straight story nor tell the whole truth, but at times they will wander. They cannot bring themselves to confess some of their own infamies connected with their story and thus break down and get tangled with the truth."

Shedding Tears.

It was in the discussion of the Crammett case that Minority Leader Mann, in closing the debate on the Republican side, said: "I shed my tears for those who have been led astray; I shed my tears in behalf of the innocent while you protect the guilty."

Congressman Clayton, on the Democratic side, called attention to lapses by the Republican administration in similar cases in which leniency had been shown to indicted people. "The gentleman from Illinois, according to his own statement, shed half a bushel of tears over that California case. We have the very ludicrous position of the gentlemen getting down before this house and shedding tears and keeping on shedding tears. You are ashamed of your miserable performance and you come here now and shed penitential tears."

It is not very often that they get the best of Mann in the debates.

Gallinger and Gronna.

Senator Gronna of North Dakota is one who often proclaims that he is a farmer. He voted for free granite, much to the displeasure of Senator Gallinger, who wanted protection for New Hampshire granite. They had some little talk back and forth, and Gronna remarked: "I voted for free granite in order to give the farmers cheaper tombstones."

"If I could select the victims I might agree with the senator from North Dakota," drily remarked Gallinger.

Morality Inquiries.

When considering nominations for offices it has been noticed that senators from woman suffrage states make inquiries about the moral character of the men named and sometimes oppose those who do not come up to a fixed standard. It is also stated that men with a moral blight cannot be elected to office in suffrage states.

NOTE READY TO GIVE TO HUERTA

MINOT RIOTS APPEAR OVER

Prisoners in County Jail Demand Jury Trial.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 12.—Only five more men were arrested in I. W. W. disturbances here. Jack Allen, one of the I. W. W. leaders, was arrested at the Soo railroad depot.

The police and deputies have the situation in control and no serious rioting has occurred.

The city is quiet although crowds of men are roaming the streets. The downtown district appears as if a carnival were in progress. Industrial workers are reported coming, but the authorities are skeptical of the reports.

The prisoners in the county jail were before Judge Murray of the county court and were granted a continuance until Monday. Each demanded a jury trial.

SIR THOMAS WILL EXHIBIT

Urges Britons to Take Part in Panama Pacific Exposition.

London, Aug. 12.—Declaring that he will be an individual exhibitor at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, whether or not the British government participates, Sir Thomas Lipton, in the Times, urges the government to reconsider its decision. He says:

"Putting aside for the moment all international and sentimental considerations involved it appears to me absolutely essential that, for strictly business purposes, this country should be officially and adequately represented."

"I shall be among the exhibitors, with or without government support."

REBELS MARCH ON PEKING

Army of 25,000 Would Capture Province of Hankow.

Hankow, China, Aug. 12.—An army of 25,000 rebels from the province of Hunan started from Yochow with the intention of capturing Hankow and proceeding thence to Peking.

A further shipload of northern troops, completing a force of probably 6,000 men, was sent from Hankow on the way to Sinti, in the province of Hupeh, where the Hunanese rebels are preparing to make a stand.

PULP FROM SWEDEN FREE

Principle Applied to Canada Extended to Other Nations.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Sweden was conceded the right to send wood pulp and paper into the United States free of duty.

The state and treasury departments have decided the recent decision of the customs court, that nations who have the most favorable treaties with the United States were entitled to free wood pulp and paper because that privilege was granted to Canada, is applicable in principle to Sweden.

American Communication Translated Into Spanish.

MEXICAN OFFICIALS SILENT

Receipt of the Message Will Not Involve the Reception of John Lind.

Authorities Remain Firm in Intending to Resist Any Plan of Interference on the Part of the United States.

Mexico City, Aug. 12.—The message of the state department at Washington, which Special Envoy John Lind has for President Huerta is ready for presentation. The document was translated into Spanish.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge, took steps to ascertain whether the Mexican government would receive the communication. "That it will do so there is little doubt."

Receipt of the message would not involve the reception of Mr. Lind or Dr. William Bayard Hale, who also is in Mexico on behalf of the state department.

Mexican officials are uncommunicative regarding Mr. Lind, but unofficially their attitude of noncompliance with any plan of interference on the part of the United States has not been altered.

Mr. Lind and Dr. Hale were in close conference for several hours. The most of Mr. Lind's time, however, was spent at his hotel, chiefly that he might be near Mrs. Lind, who is unable to leave her room because of illness. Her indisposition is not serious.

Mr. Lind had numerous callers. None of the visitors were Mexicans.

COMMENT NETTLES BRITAIN

Government Explains Why Huerta Was Recognized.

London, Aug. 12.—The British government, nettled by the comment of certain American newspapers concerning Great Britain's recognition of President Huerta, declared that the comment is based on a misconception of facts.

"The recognition of President Huerta was the recognition of a provisional president pending an election," the statement says.

"It was done on the advice of the British minister to Mexico as being likely to assist in the restoration of order—an important consideration in view of the large British interests involved."

Manifesto in Milan, Italy, Means General Walkout.

Milan, Italy, Aug. 12.—The eighth day of the general strike in Milan was spent by the leaders chiefly in organizing a national general strike, which was proclaimed in a manifesto. They found their task more difficult than they expected.

There is a great display of troops in Milan. Many arrests are being made, especially of anarchists, who are charged with incitement to civil war.

Another meeting, attended by 30,000 strikers, was held. It was voted to continue the strike and the hope was expressed that support would be given the movement by a national strike.

FERDINAND ADDRESSES ARMY

"Exhausted, but Not Conquered,"

Bulgarian King Says.

Sofia, Aug. 12.—King Ferdinand issued an address to the army, thanking his soldiers for the bravery and devotion they displayed in the war against the "treacherous allies," and declaring their efforts would have been crowned with success had not a series of political circumstances paralyzed the country.

"Pressed on all sides," said the king, "we were obliged to sign the treaty of Bucharest, our country not being in a condition to struggle against five neighbors. Exhausted, but not conquered, we had to turn our glorious standards until better days."

HURT IN MOVIE PANIC.

Valencia, Spain, Aug. 12.—

Forty-nine persons were seriously hurt at Gandia in a panic in a moving picture theater.

An alarm of fire caused a stampede. Fourteen are believed to be dying.

SAY GOVERNOR LACKS POWER

Lawyers Believe O'Neal Cannot Name Johnston's Successor.

Washington, Aug. 12.—A telegram was sent to Democratic leaders in Alabama by Senator Overman, acting chairman of the senate judiciary committee, advising them that Governor O'Neal, in the opinion of the Democratic lawyers in the senate, has no power to appoint a successor to the late Senator Joseph E. Johnston.

The message added that a majority of the lawyer senators held the governor could call a special election at once.

Tapped the Church Sleepers.
Nowadays no protest is made or any action taken against the sleepy man or woman who falls into a dose in the midst of the minister's sermon. In England 300 years ago the guilty offender would have been severely rapped over the head by men especially appointed to the task of keeping the congregation awake. For instance, in one parish in Shropshire, 25 shillings a year was regularly paid to a poor man to go about the church during the sermon and keep the people
awake. He carried a thin, long wand in his hand, which he could conveniently stretch out over considerable space and rap offenders on the head
or about the shoulders. With women
he was always instructed to be gentle, to tap softly, but persistently, until the slumber was broken. For women, it was learned, were not so amiable as men on being aroused
from a comfortable nap, and if gentle means were not employed, were likely to get up and leave, causing no little commotion about them.—Chicago Trib-

Well Known Young Mining Engineer
Dies at Rochester Following an Operation

WAS SON OF CUYLER ADAMS

Body Brought to Duluth on Special Train and Funeral Held There on Monday Afternoon

Francis Salisbury Adams, 29 years old, son of Cuyler Adams of Deer-wood and a former Duluth young man, died at Rochester, Minn., Saturday evening following a surgical operation. The body was brought to Duluth Sunday and taken to St.
Paul's church, Seventeenth avenue east and Superior street, where funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Dr. A.
W. Ryan.

News of the death of "Sals" Adams was a profound shock to his many friends in Duluth. He had been in poor health for some years, but his was an uncompromising nature. He went about his work cheerfully and few knew that he was suffering.

Mr. Adams as born in Deerwood where the family had a summer home for many years before taking up a permanent residence there. He attended the Duluth schools and was a graduate of the Duluth Central high school. Later he attended Cornell university, where he took a mining engineering course, and he followed that with special work in geology under Prof. Leith at the University of Wisconsin.

While he was attending Cornell,
Mr. Adams was operated on for appendicitis, and while the operation was apparently successful, his health never was fully restored. Privations endured on a geological expedition into the Hudson Bay country in 1909 aggravated the trouble. He was a member of a party headed by Prof. Leith and they penetrated into regions previously unexplored. They underwent hardships that told heavily on Mr. Adams.

For the last few years Mr. Adams has been associated with his father, who is one of the pioneers of the Cuyuna range. He stood high in his profession, his selection by Prof. Leith to accompany the Hudson Bay party being a high tribute to a young man.
A brilliant future was predicted for him and he was fast attaining a reputation as a geological authority in this region. He was a frequent contributor to geological and scientific journals and wrote several monographs in connection with the United States geological survey.

About a month ago, Mr. Adams went to Rochester, where he underwent two operations. Dr. Charles Mayo took personal charge of the case and everything possible was done, but there was little hope from the first. Mrs. Adams was with her son during his last illness. His father was en route to Rochester Saturday when he received a message in St. Paul urging him to make haste.
Attempts to obtain a special train finally resulted in an engine and caboose being run from St. Paul to Rochester. An official of the railroad acted as fireman on account of inability to assemble a crew and all possible speed was made. Mr. Adams arrived at the bedside only an hour before his son died.

"Sals" Adams was a universal favorite in high school, in college and later in the field of business. He made friends everywhere and held them by personal charm. He was recognized as a coming young man by the men highest in his profession and they will join his close personal friends in deep regret that he was cut off in young manhood.

The body was brought to Duluth on a special train Sunday and hundreds of sorrowing friends called at the church to pay their last respects to the dead.

Besides his parents, Mr. Adams is survived by two brothers, Culver and
R. M. Adams of Deerwood.—Duluth
Herald.

Mr. Adams was well known in Superior and in Northern Wisconsin.
For a time he was in charge of the copper development work in the southeastern part of Douglas county, and more lately a number of Superior men have been interested with him on the Cuyuna range.

The character of young Mr. Adams was in every respect above reproach and he enjoyed a reputation of the highest order both among his business associates, in his chosen profession and with his many social acquaintances. While master of any situation which presented itself he was kindly and gentle and held the strongest affection of a very large circle of friends.—Superior Telegram.

was advised that the man who had numbered Bluff avenue had left town.

Rid Your Children of Worms

Tapped the Church Sleepers.
Nowadays no protest is made or any
action taken against the sleepy man or woman who falls into a dose in the middle of the minister's sermon. In England 300 years ago the guilty offender would have been severely
rapped over the head by men especially appointed to the task of keeping
the congregation awake. For instance, in one parish in Shropshire, 25 shillings a year was regularly paid to a poor man to go about the church during the sermon and keep the people
awake. He carried a thin, long wand
in his hand, which he could conveniently stretch out over considerable
space and rap offenders on the head
or about the shoulders. With women
he was always instructed to be gentle, to rap softly, but persistently, until the slumber was broken. For women, it was learned, were not so
amiable as men on being aroused
from a comfortable nap, and if gentle
means were not employed, were likely
to get up and leave, causing no little commotion about them.—Chicago Tribune.

BRAINERD LOSES TO BALLARDS 9 TO 6

Exceeds in Number of Hits and Strikeouts—Loses on Bases on Balls

ERRORS ALSO CONTRIBUTING

Bush Was Replaced by Victor and Curran was Succeeded by Pitcher Hastings

After playing on Sunday the finest ball ever seen in Brainerd, the locals and their opponents, the Ballards had a complete reversal of form the next day and pitchers were pulled out of the game by both teams and in the end Brainerd was beaten by a 9 to 6 score Monday evening.

Bush worked well in the first two innings, striking out 2 and catching a pop up fly. In the third his spitter did not work effectively and he gave two bases on balls. The first man so favored scoring. In the fourth Kuhn, who walked, trotted in a score. In the fifth Van Luke walked and G. Kuava was hit by Bush and both scored on Kuhn's hit. Kennison rapped out a single. Bush then exchanged places with Victor, who had been playing center field.

Victor had no time to warm up, but he struck out three men and retired the side. G. Kuava scored in the sixth, Roderick having given him a life by dropping the ball on the third strike.

It was anybody's game until the finish. Brainerd fielded as well and really hit better than the Ballards. They rolled in 11 hits to the Ballards 8. Bush and Victor had 14 strikeouts to their credit while Curran and Hastings only had 6. Templeton made a fine steal for home in the third inning, beating out a throw from catcher to pitcher. The full nine innings were played.

After scoring 5 runs off Curran in four innings, he was derrick to the field and Hastings, who had pitched 14 innings the day before, held the locals down to 1 run. His wide out curve still proved a riddle to many of the batters.

MINNESOTA CENTRAL RAILWAY CO. PLANS

Special to Dispatch:

Duluth, August 12—George I. Reid and Joseph Ferrier, president and treasurer of the Minnesota Central Railway Company, went to Aitkin Monday. They were in Ironton today and will travel over the Cuyuna range in the machine of John H. Hill of Ironton, who is a director of the railway company. The morning was spent meeting the business men of Ironton and Crosby.

Mr. Reid called a special meeting of the directors in the Alworth building for Saturday noon. Upon his recommendation, it was decided unanimously that in case the company fails to secure a franchise in Brainerd, the lines will center at Ironton-Crosby, running from River-ton to Deerwood, and with the first extension to Aitkin. No provision was made for an extension to Brainerd later on. It would seem to be the intention of the company, if denied the franchise in Brainerd at this time, to eliminate that city from its plans.

FIRST STATE BANK PROSPERS

School District to Build $10,000 School—Barrows Business and Social News

Barrows, Minn., August 11—The Barrows mine is dry and hoisting ore. The 4,000 gallon pump has been running for several weeks and the water is under perfect control. Superintendent Nicholas is having his dwelling remodeled and expects to move in about August 15th. His family is now at Virginia.

The First State bank of Barrows reports a good business for the month of July. Deposits are gradually coming in, and people are realizing that the bank at home is paying more interest than the banks further away.

School District No. 10 has voted for a $10,000 school and work will be commenced within a very short time.

Miss H. Oestrich, of Minneapolis, is visiting with Mrs. R. C. Klinkenberg this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hall of Warba, Minn., spent a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Peterson Tuesday. Mr. Hall has just entered matrimonial life and seems to be quite contented.

Harold Olson has gone to Duluth and some of the Mesaba range towns to look over some new business.

Evidently Barrows is getting to be a healthier place right along as Dr. R. A. Belse reports poor business during the past few weeks.

Alfred Quackenbush returned on Monday morning from Duluth and Proctor where he attended to the repairing of some of his properties. Mr. Quackenbush says that Barrows looks good to him after going through some of the other towns.

Miss Edith Klinkenberg is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Klinkenberg.

The Methodist church had their annual Sunday school picnic Thursday and in spite of the bad weather they had a very pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parham of Iron River, Wis., arrived here Wednesday and intend to open a neat confectionery store in the building that is now nearing completion.

Richard Bergum left for Duluth Friday morning on important business and expects to return some time next week.

REGRETS TWO PHONE SYSTEMS

Editor Dispatch:

It is with much regret that I note that there is the possibility of two telephone systems in our city. When first approached as to the proposition I was somewhat favorably impressed with the arguments presented. I then began an investigation and have investigated, most carefully, the experiences of other cities.

It cannot be figured as an economic proposition from any standpoint whatever. It may temporarily reduce the price of both telephones but what is there gained if it becomes necessary to have both phones in order to be in touch with all in the city who have phones? No telephone company can furnish efficient service for less than $1.00 a phone and in a few cases it is furnished at that, but let that be the basis. I must have both phones in my residence if I wish to reach all telephone subscribers in the city and where can I profit by there being two telephone systems in the city?

Beside the economic side of the question there must also be considered the annoyance and confusion in having two bells to ring instead of one.

I have no particular love for the Northwestern Telephone company, but they have established a splendid system in our city and have given us a fair service and if rates are compared with others throughout the country it will be found that we are getting a very reasonable rate. These things should be carefully considered before a petition is signed inviting another telephone company into our city.

WIRELESS WAVES

The Electric Voice That Speaks Through the Ether.

SETTING UP THE VIBRATIONS.

This is the Work of the Oscillator, Which is the Electric Mouth, and Its Message Is Caught by the Resonator, Which is the Ear of the Apparatus.

More truly than any other telegraphic device, the wonderful wireless is a speaking voice. It makes itself heard just as the human voice does by a series of waves moving freely through space.

When I speak my voice is sent out in undulations of varying length and frequency through the air. When the wireless "speaks" its voice is conveyed by undulations in the ether, which is a more refined medium than air, carrying the waves of light and electricity as the air carries those of sound.

The oscillator of the wireless is a "mouth," sending out undulations in the ether as our mouths send out undulations in the air, and the resonator of the wireless is an "ear," catching the etherial waves as they impinge upon it, as our ears catch the atmospheric waves that strike them.

We see nothing wonderful in vocal sounds, because nature gave us in our needs one instrument to produce them and another to receive them. But she left us to find out for ourselves how to produce and receive "vocal" waves in the ether. Since we had to make the instruments that deal with them the etherial waves seem to us marvelous, although they are in principle no more marvelous than the waves of air.

Man began to use electricity for conveying intelligence by sending a current of it along a wire. He pressed a button at one end of the line, and the electric current passing along the wire induced a corresponding motion in a tapper at the other end. It was a roundabout way of employing an agency which we now know can be employed more simply and directly by throwing away the wires and making the electric waves "speak" straight through the ether.

It is true that the language employed does not consist of the words of any spoken tongue, but it is one that can be directly translated into any other known to man, and so it is the most universal of all languages.

Now, let us see how it is employed. First as to the electric "mouth." When a charge of electricity is accumulated on a "condenser" a similar but opposite charge is induced upon another condenser placed near. The air between them acts as an insulator because it is a poor conductor of electricity. But when the charge attains a certain degree of intensity the strain upon the air becomes too great, and a spark passes between the two condensers, by which equilibrium is restored between them.

The passage of this spark produces, so to speak, a shock in the ether, which, like the explosion of a gun or the utterance of a sound, sets up a series of waves in the surrounding medium, which radiate away on all sides. These waves in the ether produce the electric "voice." If the sparks are regulated in number and frequency the consequent waves are similarly regulated. An instrument for the production of such waves is called an oscillator or exciter. It is a kind of vocal apparatus for speaking through the ether instead of through the air.

But just as we should have no knowledge of the passage of sound waves if we were not provided with ears to hear them, so the electric waves would go unregarded if we had no apparatus for receiving them.

The receiving apparatus is called a resonator, or detector. It may be situated hundreds of miles from the oscillator, but it will catch the waves as they undulate to it through the ether, and it can be made to reproduce them in an audible or legible form by causing them to operate a Morse dot and dash instrument, as in ordinary telegraphy by wire.

But the electric voice and the electric ear are in some ways more manageable than the human voice and ear. We can only produce and hear air waves of a limited range of frequency, and we cannot do much to alter that limit.

Sound waves vibrating less than forty times a second or more than 40,000 times are inaudible to us. But electric waves varying in frequency from a few hundred up to hundreds of millions a second can be rendered perceptible, and it is also possible so to construct the instruments that they will send forth and receive particular ranges of waves and be mute and deaf to others.

Then the distance over which the electric waves can be detected is almost infinitely greater than that of ordinary sound waves. It takes a strong voiced man to make his voice audible across a little river, but, as everybody knows, the electric cry of a ship in distress can be electrically heard from the middle of the Atlantic ocean. And there are enthusiasts who predict that before very long we shall be able to speak by wireless to some other planet, if only there is somebody there to hear and understand us!—Garrett P. Serviss in Spokane Spokesman-Review.

The Laureate of Scilly.

Some of England's poets have been poor poets, but it may be presumed that all of them could read and write. Such, however, was not the case with Robert Mayne, familiarly known as "Poet Laureate of the Scilly Isles," who died some twenty years ago at the age of eighty-two. Though quite illiterate in the ordinary sense, he composed a vast deal of poetry—not all of it execrable—and dictated it for printing. He had a remarkable memory, and if a book were read to him two or three times could repeat almost the whole of it without prompting. The merest outline of an incident would draw from him a set of verses, which he sold at a penny.—London Graphic.

Wonders of Victoria Falls.

Victoria falls is in shape like a huge capital T—the falls represented by the top of the letter and the outlet by the stem. The water pours into a great pool a mile long and escapes by a narrow outlet not more than 150 feet wide in places. The water pours into the pool with a roar that may be heard twenty-eight miles and stirs up a spray that causes constant rain to fall in its immediate territory. This spray is so great that it looks like a cloud against the sky and may be seen before you hear the roar of the falls. Yet the water from this great pool escapes almost as quietly as water from an undisturbed lake. After the water escapes from the great pool below the falls through the stem of the letter T it makes a turn at right angles and sweeps around like the capital letter U. Yet there is no great disturbance in any part of the outlet from the falls. At Niagara the whirlpool rapids is one of the world's wonders. Here the river a few hundred feet below the falls seems to be navigable.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Couldn't Be Much Lighter.

At a mock parliament held in Bristol the "honorable member for Stranraer" asked the "right honorable the president of the board of trade" (referring to the merchant shipping act, 1894, prevention of collisions) "whether a lighterman, having two light lighters in tow, would be required to light a lighter light on the lighter lighter, so that the lighter the lighter the lighter the lighter?" The president replied, "Obviously the answer is in the negative, since the lighter lighter being the lighter and the use of the comparative 'lighter' denoting that the lighter is already 'light' the lighter of the lights would not be required to light a lighter light on the lighter lighter, since the lighter lighter is lighter than the lighter lighter."—Strand Magazine.

Selenium in Time Recording.

An ingenious application of the peculiar property of selenium of varying its electric resistance with change of illumination has been made in Heidelberg in the electric transmission of pendulum beats to a distance for recording time and comparing clocks. For a long time the beats were electrically transmitted through contacts made by the pendulum itself. This method introduced irregularities of consequence, where hundreds of a second are taken into account, as in astronomical observations. The Heidelberg method causes the swinging pendulum, just as it touches its lowest point, to reflect a beam of light upon a selenium cell, which transmits the message without physical contact with the pendulum.—New York Tribune.

Bede House Feasts.

At Fosdyke, a tiny village in England, there is held every year a most quaint dinner known as the Bede house feast. Some gentlemen, many years back, left a sum of money with which half a dozen Bede houses were to be built, and once a year he directed that the occupants were to have a feast. Every year the six old ladies and the six old gentlemen meet the trustees and have dinner. Some of the trustees are county councillors and the like; but, according to the terms of the will, they have to serve the old people first and make them comfortable. The guests always sit in the same order as the number of their houses, and the menu must include a veal pie with plums in it.

When Hanging Was Common.

Edmond Burke said that he could in his time obtain the assent of the house of commons to any bill that carried the death punishment. A man's life was not very valuable in those strenuous days. If he scratched his name on Westminster bridge, if he wore a wig or false mustache or any other disguise on a public road, if he cut down a young tree, if he stole property worth more than $1.25, if he had been transported for crime and returned a day ahead of the expiration of his term of punishment, if he wrote a threatening letter, if he stole a hide from a tanner's, for any and all of these things and for 200 more than these he was hanged by the neck until he was dead.

Getting it All Together.

"Where's my breakfast?" inquired the star boarder. "Well, sir," replied the landlady, "I got a nice bit of fish for you, but I'm sorry to say, sir, the cat!" "Confound the cat! Then let me have cold chicken." "I regret to say, sir, the cat!" "Well, then, some eggs." "There are no eggs in, sir. The cat!" "Hang it all then! Cook the cat and we'll have it all together."

Preparing For the Worst.

"I always prepare for the worst, and then if it doesn't happen I am agreeably surprised." "But what if it does?" "Well, then, of course, there's nothing left for me to do but kick myself for not having known better."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Proved His Smartness.

Wedderly—I'd hate to have any business dealings with Slyker. He's too smart. Singleton—Do you mean to say that you consider him smarter than yourself? Wedderly—I certainly do. Why, he had a chance to marry my wife, but he didn't.—London Tit-Bits.

Very Refined.

"My young man's a real gent," said Liza of Shoreditch. "He never blows his soup like a common person. He always fans it with his hat."—London Telegraph.

Winning Wives.

Mrs. Eze—Some husbands win their wives by sheer audacity. Mrs. Wye—Yes, and many others by sheer mendacity.—Boston Transcript.

Beat the Author.

"East Lynne" has enjoyed a unique popularity, both as play and novel. After being rejected by two publishers, it kept the printers of the third working night and day to meet the demand, and, what is more, made abundant work for foreign printers too, for it was soon translated into most of the European and many of the oriental languages. And it achieved fame in another direction by becoming the stock example of the defects of our copyright system, for the many dramatic versions of the story into which a comic policeman was introduced, never brought the author a single penny in royalties.—London Express.

LEARN TO BE GENIAL.

There are many people who excuse themselves from the little familiarities and kindnesses of life on the ground that they are not natural to them. These people say they are reserved by disposition and cannot be free and easy in meeting other people. But we can learn to row a boat or to write shorthand or to speak a new language. That unaffected simplicity of address which made Ruskin so approachable to child or man was the work of a long life's discipline.

AUTOMOBILE RACE HISTORY

Will Be Made Speed Demons on Famous State Fair Track.

Saturday, September 6th, will be Automobile Day at the Minnesota State Fair. The afternoon will be given over to races and time trials by the world's most famous speed demons driving the fastest dirt track cars now in existence.

Last year over 50,000 enthusiasts witnessed the automobile races over the Hamline course, which is admitted to be the fastest circular dirt track in the world. This year the prizes offered will attract a much larger number of famous drivers, and with good weather, automobile race history will be made.

GREATEST RACING IN FAIR'S HISTORY

Rich Purses and Fast Track Attract the Country's Best to Hamline Meet.

The Minnesota State Fair offering of $27,500 in purses has attracted the largest and best list of entries ever made in the early closing events of a race meet in the Northwest. Owners from twenty-two states and provinces of the United States and Canada have named 194 horses in these events. With the entries in twelve late closing events yet to come, it is a safe prediction that nearly 400 of the country's best harness horses will battle for supremacy over the famous Hamline track in September.

Last year's harness races at the Minnesota State Fair were conceded by all to be the best all around speed program ever given in this part of the country. The number and class of entries, the general interest of horsemen and all other conditions indicate that the 1913 program will surpass in every way that of 1912.
